Supreme Court Justice Doubts 'Tokyo Rose' Got Fair Trial, Grants $50,000 Bail Pending Appeal

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Associate Justice William O. Douglas of the U. S. Supreme Court, declared in a statement released last week, that Mrs. Iva Toguri d'Aquino, convicted of treason for wartime propaganda broadcasts from Radio Tokyo, would be granted bail and that he would sign an order permitting Mrs. d'Aquino's release from the Federal women's prison at Alderson, W. Va., on $50,000 bail pending hearing on her appeal.

In his statement, Justice Douglas explained that his doubt whether or not the defendant had received a fair trial was the reason for his decision.

"An appellant, though guilty beyond question, may have been denied the kind of a trial that even a traitor to our country is entitled to under the Constitution and laws. Those are situations where bail pending appeal should be granted."

The associate justice emphasized that he is not passing judgment on the matters raised in Mrs. d'Aquino's appeal, but only saying they are fairly debatable and entitled to a hearing.

After the issuance of the statement, attorney for the leading figure in the Tokyo Rose trial, Wayne M. Collins, in San Francisco, predicted that the 33-year old California-born woman will be released under bond within a few days. He said the bond will be put up even if he had to raise the money himself.

Upon learning of the Supreme Court ruling, Federal Judge Michael J. Roche, in whose court Mrs. d'Aquino was convicted, declared that "she had a fair trial."

Mrs. d'Aquino was convicted last fall by a San Francisco jury after the longest and costliest treason trial in American history. She was sentenced to 10 years in prison and fined $10,000.

Just Passing Through

Lovers, wa' ha' . . .

Daniel Cupid was on the prowl Tuesday.

Feb. 14 is the day for Dunny to bring out his trusty bow and arrow and go a one-man, one-day tour for the purpose of enlightening the ignorant to the sublimities of love.

Valentine's Day is the annual bit of idealism which has withstood the moody workings of time, the Freudian complexes, and the elements with which man is bringing about his own destruction.

St. Valentine's Day was supposed to be a festival from days of yore when trembling swains and blushing maidens drew ballots from a box for their Valentines. Having drawn said ballots, the couples were relegated to the overjoyous state of being Valentines for a certain period of time. Or, as we moderns would say, "go steady".

It was also a day when the birds were first supposed to end their state of singleness for the purpose of mating.

Things were probably all very naive and straightforward with no fuss.

But things ain't what they used to be.

Now St. Valentine's Day is all frilly and decorative with the fancy embroidery of cards, heart-shaped chocolate boxes. And have you read some of the verses? No simple, homey, unadorned stuff like:

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
Sugar is sweet,
And so are you".

But rather impassioned lines torn from the bleeding heart of an immortal bard who's suffered the throes of the disease.

Kids used to have the most fun though, especially in the public schools. We used to pick names from out of a big box and [illegible] as the custom went, send a card to the name. Van. City Council Cold To Chinese Cop Plan

VANCOUVER, B. C. — The City Council refused to endorse the suggestion that Chinese Canadians be taken on the Vancouver Police Force last week. The idea was advanced by The New Citizen, the local Chinese Canadian newspaper, and was brought up to the Council by the fire, police and traffic committee.

The plan suggested that Chinese on the force would help combat crime committed against the city's Chinese.

The aldermen considered the suggestion as being discriminatory.

"It would be admitting discrimination which doesn't exist," Ald. Halford D. Wilson was reported to have stated.

One council member, Ald Proctor asked, "Then I would like to know why we have no Chinese on the force now?"

Bulletin Published For Nisei Returnees

PICTURE BUTTE, Alta. — Rev. Y. Kawamura of the Picture Butte Buddhist has started publication of a mimeographed bulletin in Japanese for the benefit of the returned Niseis. In its first issue which was published recently, it contains articles written by several of the returnees themselves who are now residing in British Columbia and Alberta.

These contributors have written about their experiences in Japan and their impressions about Canada as well as to compare the merits and demerits of the people of these countries. They were amazed by the progressiveness in Canada which they did not imagine while in Japan, and were deeply touched by the kindness of the Occidental people whom they came to know since their return.

The pamphlet is without a name, and Rev. Kawamura has suggested five names. The reader is requested to make the final choice.

Four Toronto Nuns Glad To Be In Japan

CHIGASAKI, Japan. — Four sisters from the Monastery of the Precious Blood in Toronto who left over a month ago to serve their faith in Japan have three years to make up their minds whether they wish to stay in the East. Once they decide to stay, they may never leave the country again.

The sisters were met at Yokohama on their arrival by U. S. military personnel and they were driven to Chigasaki. They say that the Japanese sisters are very kind but that they feel like giants as the Japanese are so short.

Although they have travelled across Canada into the U. S. to sail from San Francisco across the Pacific Ocean to a strange country, yet Sister Mary of the Sacred Heart, Sister Mary Teresa, Sister Mary Ange and Sister Veronica say, "they are glad to be home again to take up their lives again".

Hamilton YBS Hold Annual Elections

HAMILTON. — The Hamilton YBS held their annual elections on Feb. 5 following the Ho-Onko services conducted by Rev. T. Tsuji. Dewey Uchida was chosen president for the new term.

Other posts were filled by the following: Oscar Kawai, vice-president; Alice Kuwabara, secretary; Jean Hayashida, treasurer; Mrs. Sawada, S. S. Supervisor; Tomi Yamashita, membership convenor; Ken Hashimoto, and Irene Uyeno, social convenor; George Uchida, sports convenor; Oscar Kawai was also appointed religious convenor.

Japan Diet Members To Study Can. Parliamentary System

OTTAWA. — Fourteen Japanese Members of Parliament, two SCAP representatives and three Japanese American interpreters, one of whom is a Lieutenant in the United States Army, will constitute the members of the delegation scheduled to arrive in Ottawa on Feb. 22 for a brief visit which will last until Feb. 24, according to a release from the External Affairs Department.

They are visiting the Canadian capital at the invitation of the Canadian Government in order to give the Japanese Diet Members an opportunity to view the Canadian Parliament in session. The 14 members include leading members of all major parties, with the exception of the Communist Party, from both Japanese Houses.

Under the post-war constitution, Japan's system of government bears a strong resemblance to the Canadian system. The delegation, therefore is particularly interested in such problems as the process by which bill are passed, the working of party government, and any background information as to how the political parties are formed and developed in a democracy.

The delegation has now been visiting State legislatures and the Federal Congress in the United States. A suitable programme for the delegates in Ottawa is now being arranged.

Youth In Japan Files For U. S. Citizenship

TOKYO. — A youth with a name Morris Hardy Emerson, red hair, and who speaks little English, claimed his nurse brought him to Japan when he was two years old, after his American parents died in San Francisco and filed application for U. S. citizenship.

All he remembers of his childhood was his nurse telling him his name as his parents both died shortly after his birth. In Korea at the beginning of the war, his nurse was arrested and he never saw her again.

Returning to Japan, he failed to find any information as to his origin. A couple in Cincinnati, Ohio, have offered to adopt the 18-year-old lad and a check on his basis for his claim is to be made by the American Consulate.

Summer Camp Is Ghost-Town In Evacuation Story Film

By Staff Writer

A summer camp for underprivileged children in Bolton, some 20-odd miles from Toronto and a home in east-end Toronto, were the sites of the first shots taken over the week-end as the University Film Society commenced filming of the Japanese Canadian evacuation from the Pacific coast and their subsequent resettlement.

The camp was to represent one of the Interior housing centres to which many evacuees were sent from the coastal areas. The house in Toronto was to depict the Vancouver home of a fictitious Japanese family, the members of which will be the main characters, and was selected on the strength of its resemblance to a typical Vancouver residence.

An interior of one of the cabins at Bolton was converted to typify a ghost-town home of the evacuee family and the Feb. 12 filming was devoted to a sequence of shots utilizing the cabin. Authenticity was lent to the scene by using a stove exactly like those in the ghost-towns, as well as the rough furniture and other objects to assure an accurate reproduction even in its minute details. Other sets and scenes, too, say the directors, will be recreated with the same purpose.

The entire cast has now been chosen. Three young boys will play the "juvenile" roles. They are Kenny Hashimoto, Jimmy Yonemitsu and Bryce Elliot. The other Nisei roles are handled by Marie Yatabe, Lucy Sugiura, Uriko Shintani, Hugo Yamamoto and Arnold Arai. Four Isseis, Mrs. Tomiyama, Mrs. Uno, Mr. Osawa and Mr. Okazaki are taking the Issei roles.

There are also a few Occidentals in the story.

The film crew, all members of the Film Society, includes George Yamazaki, a student in architecture. The filming is expected to take several months as they will be taken on weekends so as not to interfere with the schooling or work of those involved.

SEATTLE. — Nine hundred claims for an estimated total of nearly 34 million have been filed by returned evacuees of Japanese ancestry in the Seattle area.

THE EVACUATION FILM

In commencing its production of the Japanese Canadian evacuation story, the University Film Society is undertaking a project that merits our interest, support and appreciation. It is entitled to whatever assistance we may be able to contribute towards the successful conclusion of their efforts.

They are tackling an undertaking which not only requires time, patience, organization and hard work, all of which is given voluntarily, but which also calls for a sizeable outlay if it is to be completed in a manner befitting the usefulness of the finished product and the labor which is being expended by those who are sharing in the endeavour.

They are working under the trying handicap of a limited budget which necessitates cutting corners and squeezing to the utmost. The Film Society, which has been in operation for only two years, derives its working fund from membership fees, and a portion of this fund has been set aside towards the film. It is not hard to see that this does not provide an ample fund.

By no means does this indicate that the Film Society is attempting something beyond their financial capability with the hope that outside assistance is forthcoming. They can and they intend to finish the job without securing aid, however we believe that we should at least share in the financial responsibility of the project. This could mean the difference between a good job and the best job possible.

This is the first attempt at a film documentation of the evacuation. It is quite possible that this will be the only one.

Therefore it is in our interest and in the interest of posterity that this invaluable effort be given our attention and assistance. We would appeal to individuals and organizations to recognize this worthy undertaking and give it the assistance it so well deserves.

THE WEEKLY HABIT

By TOYO TAKATA

Not since the picnic days of last summer did we disrupt our Elysian Sunday morning slumber until the latest week end. It was an 8 a.m. struggle with the sheets to get a first-hand sneak preview of the preliminary shooting of the University Film Society's 20-minute evacuation epic. The location, to use an expression of Hollywood [illegible], was Bolton, a summer camp thirty miles northwest of Toronto, which was [illegible] cinematic [illegible] ghost town [illegible].

The entire company, the shooting crew, the cast who were to be "shot", other necessary personnel, and the just plain curious, a category reserved for [illegible] selves [illegible], numbered close to thirty. The cast, though we were not able to determine their accurate age, ranged from six to sixty.

The crew put up the sets, worried about the lighting and wiring, as they prepared for the realistic shots of the interior of [illegible]

From Vancouver....

By Ted Otsu

I was glancing through the Vancouver Sun's classifieds just the other day and I came across a couple of items which interested me. Under the Help Wanted Female section, there were two ads. One stated: Wanted, Japanese girl, experienced in housework in modern home, and the other: Japanese girl, experienced in housework. I presume they were from the Kerrisdale district.

There is very little chance that a Nisei girl will answer those wanted ads. Times have changed from the pre-evacuation days when the Issei formed the majority of the working Japanese, and because of the lack of training as well as their language difficulty, menial positions were some of the few types of jobs available to them.

Now the Nisei has received training and education and is better equipped for more advanced positions. However, it seems to me that many of the Occidentals here are still not aware of it, and that girls will answer their ads as in the "good" old days.

I've been wondering, too, exactly what is the future prospect for the Nisei on the B. C. coast. I'm really not sure, but it does not seem too bright. There will be jobs for the Nisei in the fishing and logging industries, but that's about all.

Although most of the Japanese Canadians returning to the B. C. coast are returning to get back into fishing, some are seeking employment in the city, but they are facing a grim situation at the present time.

The other day I met an American ex-veteran from Boston, Mass., and during the course of a conversation over lunch, he related his experiences in the U. S. Armed Forces in the Pacific and European fronts.

His buddies were of all racial extractions, Negroes and Japanese included, but he said that they were all fighting for a common cause—their country and freedom for America.

I was glad to meet an American friend from across the border who accepted me without any trace of discrimination.

At the Studio Theatre in Vancouver is the picture which has won high praise all over the country. "Lost Boundaries" which was chosen as one of the ten best pictures of 1949, has shattered all Vancouver records with an eight week run. This movie of the difficulty of a Negro family in Keenham, N. H., with the white society, seems to deal with the same situation that Nisei's are facing.

Another movie which I saw was Tokyo Joe, the Humphrey Bogart starrer. This picture re[illegible] the Japanese movies I used to attend during [illegible] period. I give [illegible] Teru Shimada for his fine performance in the film.

Montreal Letter by V. O.

RANDOM RUMINATIONS

Dear hearts and gentle people!

It was cold in Montreal yesterday with the thermometer reading a high of only three degrees. Th "crunch-crunch" of peoples' footsteps echoed and ricocheted from Nature's dirty linoleum of snow and grime now stomped on by millions of footsteps. The air lacked humidity and as they might say in Suthern Alberta, "It was nippy outside." A metallic moon shone translucently giving the whole city an atmosphere of frigidity. No, Montreal certainly isn't the place for a person when winter descends with all its wrath of wind and snow. Yes sir, give me good old British Columbia when it comes to winter wonderland time!

As a delegate, I had departed from the National conference in Lethbridge having damned the B. C. contingent to high heaven. Therefore, it was certainly heartening when I read Mr. Kobayashi's account of the B. C. Provincial Conference, and that they had increased their National budget quota.

We delegates had departed from the National Conference with the mutual feeling that each province would do its best, and frankly, what more could one ask? But I must here admit that I was a little wary of B. C. And so, when I read the good news from B. C., what mattered was not so much the amount of the increase, but that with their action B. C. comfirmed their faith in the National JCCA.

Is our Religion Anachronistic?

Lately, I've again immersed myself in discussions on religion. Whenever someone inquires as to my religious leanings, I always answer; "I belong to no religion in particular, but to every religion in general." My interrogator is usually bemused by such a profound bit of platitude and usually mumbles an ambiguous "Oh," and the inquisition suddently terminates. But more than often, my inquisitor is not so kind. I am aware that there are those who consider me an atheist, a heretic, a heathen, or at least a disbeliever; for to them, a religious person must go through certain formalities and rituals. Personally, I would prefer the term "non-comformist," for I sincerely believe that there is a lot of good in every religion, and therefore, one can believe in one religion without necessarily disbelieving in another.

I believe that true human progress means the perfecting and ameliorating of man himself, and not in improving the tools he employs, nor in increasing his physical well-being. It is an acknowledged fact that science and technology today has advanced so far ahead of humanity itself that today we are at the brink of catastrophe. A world void of the basic tenets of morality and ethics leads it irreversibly to social chaos and suicide. Charters and treaties are written and signed by the inhuman objective hands of governments. It is only when individual men themselves believe and support these pacts that we can have good will and peace amongst men. Governments can pass laws and legislate, but it is the solemn duty of the Church to instill into every man the Universal Truths recognized by every religion.

I have asked many people as to why they attend Church and if they believe religion is necessary. I have yet to hear a good answer. I believe that it is not faith, but the lack of it that is partly to blame. However, you can tax faith only so much, and I believe that this is where the Church is failing. For one thing, I believe the Church has become so submerged in the nebulous world of symbols that the ordinary layman "Heareth but does not understand."

For Western civilization, the Rennaisance opened the vistas to a magnificent new world. Spearheaded by the reasoning mind and the newly acquired inductive method of science, man gained a new confidence. But what man forgot during this period of material progress was that "Man does not live by bread alone." What he had done fundamentally was replace a spiritual religion with a secular one. In short, the illusion he had created was that he could live a happy and whole life by merely satisfying his sensorial and sensual appetites. Life to him became a transitory stage of stimulus—reaction void of anything spiritual or absolute.

Soon, frustrated with the monotonous repetition of stimulus-reaction and the daily routine of life, man promulgated the new creed of novelty. To be different, to do something novel became the fad. Then, again the emotional depression came when they realized that to be constantly different had also become a routine. The variations in the dances, the flagpole-sitters, the Channel swimmers remain the quaint vestiges of a world in a dilemma.

Where had man erred? I believe it was when he substituted policies for principles, until today, he can no longer distinguish between the two. I believe man can find an answer, first through education whereby each individual's faculties are developed to that extent whereby he becomes a man amongst men, in short, an individualist who can think for himself, and is no longer led astray by every new ideology. Secondly, I believe in the innate good of man, and in the brotherhood of men. I believe that man can think for himself, without coercion or compulsion he will naturally return to the principles of life.

And so, once again, the Church is handed the opportunity of saving mankind. Will the Church again lead and again make men mere followers, or will the Church wisely guide and let men consciously find their own salvation? At the brink of catastrophe man again turns to the Church. Has the latter an answer? Let us hope so.

門内のせまい庭から、すぐに玄關の客間に入る。石だたみの床に正面の壁によせて黒檀の卓を置き椅子を配してある。奥へ入る戸口は、この壁の左右にあつて、敷居をまたぐと、同じやうな形式の部屋で、またその左右の戸口の奥が、これと同じ工合に、更に後方の部屋に續く。正面の壁には文字の對聯をかゝげたものもあるが、寺のやうに佛壇を置いた部屋もあつた。

或る部屋の壁には、祖先から代々のこの家の主人だつた夫婦の肖像を、額におさめて並べてかざつてある。これはこの家の歴史であつた。最も古いものは、まだ寫眞のない時代なので、彩色した畫像でそれも龍の模様を胸につけクジャクの羽を帽子につけた清朝の風俗の老人に、髪のむすび方も違い纏足した太太（夫人）が、並んでゐる。寫眞の時代に入ると、服装は南方の氣候に順應した簡略のものになつてゐるが、やがて一、二代で男主人は孫逸仙の寫眞にあるやうに詰襟の洋服を着てゐるやうになり、夫人は、マレー風にサラサのサロンを腰に巻き、ジュバンのやうに前で合せる薄い上衣と變化して來る。そして、次の代に來るものは洋服の背廣だ。若夫人だけは現代に入つてもマレー風か、廣東あたりから移入される今日流行の支那服だ。故國を離れてここに根をおろして以來の家の歴史が、重々しく客を見おろしてゐるのだ。

若い主人は、流ちようにロンドン仕込みの本格の英語を話す。

◇日本の海外移住協會神奈川支部常任理事田中山城氏から、こんな手紙が來た。──「ニューカナデアンのクリスマスと新年特別號を興味ふかく拜讀しました。特に、將來日本からの新移民が許される場合があると假定して、どういう心構えの人々が來ることを望むかという質問に對する在加日系人各位の御意見は興味深く且つ極めて有益に拜讀しました。此の記事は吾々の機關紙へ轉載させて頂きたいと思います。又一月七日號には東京の鈴木氏の寄稿記事中カナダより日本を訪問せられた人々が横濱の宿屋でひどくボラれた事實が記載されて居りますが、地元の人間として甚だ恥かしく義憤を覺える次第です。此の事實は關係當局者にも話し旅館業者の反省を促すべき何等かの處置をとりたく思います。東京に短期間滯在される母國訪問の方々若しくは團体で三、四十人程度の人數でしたら、相當の設備があり實費で宿泊できる様なところ、例へば大塚の中央開拓會館（一泊三食附三百五十圓、但し米は別、米代は東京でヤミ買いしても一升百三十圓程度）などありますから、若し事前に御連絡があれば御世話致します。右會館はもと松平家の邸あとですが、戰後の東京には調査すればまだまだ斯様な性質の會館で利用できる處が相當あると思われますから調べて置こうと思います。」

◇これは三重縣鈴鹿市役所民生課の吉本嘉氏からの手紙の大意──「ニューカナデアンを有難く拜見致しました。私どもの課では社會事業やララ物資やユニセフ（國連の戰災子供救援資金を取扱う國際的機關のこと）に關する仕事に毎日を忙しく送つています關係上、遙か海外にあつて活動していられる日本人の様子を知らせて頂くことは誠に嬉しいことで、カナダからのニュースが當地に入りましたのは今回がはじめてで、ニューカナデアンは民生委員會その他色々の會合にて十分利用させていただきます。尚私は役所の仕事が終つて歸宅してから中學一年生（男女十四歳）約六十名に拙宅にて英語の會話を毎晩六時から九時まで教えていますが、仕事が忙しいので始めた當初は一寸無理かと思いましたが、この頃では少年少女の方が熱心で、後二、三年は止められそうもありません。會の名前も子供達が青い旗とつけ、居住地毎にチームをつくつて委員が夫々のチームのメンバーをまとめたり會の運營に協力してくれます子供らは海外のお友達と英語で文通できたらどんなに樂しく又英語も上達するだろうと期待しています。」

【ワシントン發】三週間前に南朝鮮への經濟援助金として六千万弗の援助案を米議會に提出したところ一九二票對一九一票の一票の差で拒否されて以來、マッカーサー元帥はじめ各方面より非難攻擊をうけて來た。米政府は今回新たに『極東經濟援助法案』と銘打つて朝鮮及び蔣介石の台灣援助を目的とする一千万弗の法案を出して二月十日上院を滿場一致で可決、直ちに白堊館に廻附された

アインシユタイン博士が米ソ武力競爭を非難

【ニューヨーク發】最近「普遍化された重力理論」と呼ばれる、質量とエネルギーとの關係についての新學說を發表して世界を驚かした「相對性理論の父」アインシュタイン博士は「人類は戰爭を止めなければ地球上から消滅してしまうであろう」と警告し、この皆殺しから人類を救うために(一)國家間に於けるあらゆる武力行爲の禁止(二)國家の保安に關する問題を決定する超國家的な審判所とその決定を遂行する機關を創設すべきであると提議し「米國とロシアの間に於ける武力競爭はヒステリーの性質にまで進展している」と非難した

公務員が全ストを決行すれば

講演お斷り
サンガー夫人渡日拒否さる

【東京發】有名な米國の產兒制限主張者マガレット・サンガー夫人を招き「產兒調節講演會」を主催しようと計畫した讀賣新聞の企てはマッカーサー司令部より承認を得られず、サンガー夫人の日本入國は拒否されたと十三日同新聞代辯者は語つている。消息通の情報によると、マッカーサー司令部はキャソリック教會側から「サンガー夫人の意見を支持しなくて講演を許すことは出來ない筈だ」という抗議を受けたのである。同元帥が先般渡日を許した米國の人口問題專門家が、日本の人口問題は全國的な產兒制限を斷行することによつて解決すると主張して廻つて大變な非難をうけたので、今回もサンガー夫人の渡日で二の舞をやつてはというところから入國を禁止したものと見られている

日本と親交を願う
極東事態を語るピアソン外相

【オタワ發】東洋旅行から六週間ぶりに歸つたピアソン外相は先週末記者團との會見を行い、アジアは赤色一面に塗りつぶされる危險ある事を强調すると共に、日本を含む非共產國間とカナダとの密接な親交の必要あることを力說した。主要點は次の通り

△カナダは日本講和條約が速かに締結されることを希望する。ソ連が參加しないならばソ連なしで講和會議を行えばよい

△講和後は米軍はできるだけ早く日本から引揚げるべきである。そして日本の自立を促進させねばならない

△西部諸國と日本との貿易復興又は增進は民主々義に有利になることである。世界の重點は今やアジアに轉換した。カナダは極東の非共產國と特に親交を結ぶべきである

△中共政府の承認決定は政府にあるが、私自身の意見では今すぐと中共を承認したくないと思う。完全なる獨立國でなく、ソ連のアヤツリ人形だからである

Rebels Give Mustangs Scare, Unable To Break Unbeaten String; Whizz Kids Vanquish Aces

Whizz Kids 45—Aces 33

Whizz Kids kept their playoff hopes glowing by trimming the Aces 45-33 behind the steady performance of sharpshooting Yuki Kameoka. The winners who stood on the brink of elimination, outjumped, outplayed and outscored their taller opponents for their first victory over the Aces.

Play in the first half of last Friday's encounter was fairly even with Frank Sumi and Yuki Kameoka notching 10 points apiece for their respective teams and the half ended 22-20 for the eventual winners. The second half found the fast-breaking Whizz Kids throwing an effective blanket around their own basket while racing through for their game-winning points.

The Whizz Kids now face the task of beating the Rebels next Friday to climb into a tie for the last playoff spot.

Whizz Kids: Kameoka 16, Kajioka 8, Koyanagi 8, Shintani 6, Fujiwara 3, Fukumoto 2, J. Maikawa 2, Miyasaki, K. Maikawa.

Aces: Sumi 10, Hirano 9, S. Takata 6, Miyashita 4, Onishi 2, G. Takata 2, Arai.

Mustangs 44—Rebels 38

In the nightcap, the inspired Rebels playing aggressively, continued their late season drive and almost tamed the runaway Mustangs coming out on the short end of a 44-38 score.

In the opening half, the Rebels showed good form from the foul strip and took a 22-18 lead by halftime. Butt after the change-over, Mustangs suddenly broke loose with Herby Miyasaki, who had been held in check by the combined efforts of Shige Ashikawa and Mush Fukumoto in the first half, leading the pack.

By the end of the third quarter, the defending champions had established an 11-point lead and were never again in trouble. Herby Miyasaki continued to stretch his high-scoring lead by hooping 16 points while Hide Ioi with 9 points was the Rebels' high man.

Mustangs: H. Miyasaki 16, K. Miyasaki 9, T. Toyama 7, Inamoto 6, J. Toyama 2, R. Miyasaki 2, Makimoto 2, Ohara, Mori.

Rebels: Ioi 9, Hirano 7, Tsukamoto 6, Fukumoto 5, Mitsui 4, Kurita 3, Ashikawa 2, Izukawa 2.

Takeda's Gain Top Place Undisputed

By drubbing Sora Construction last Saturday, Takeda Insurance gained undisputed lead in the Toronto Nisei Bowling League by breaking the tie with Yamada Studios who were able to score only a 5-2 win over Best Cleaners. Team 9 were the only other 7-0 winner by beating Urabe Insurance. Danforth and O. K. Cleaners both won 5-2 from Queen City and Variety Grill respectively. Freedmans took the odd point from Star Cleaners.

High men for the evening were Ed. Nakamura 791-314, M. Isoshima 750-286, S. Ono 717-253 and R. Sora 699-269.

Johnny Takeda still holds the best average with 239, Mas Isoshima is second with 230, and Sandy Ono third at 229.

Japan Actress To Make Movie On 442nd Unit

TOKYO. — Miss Kinuyo Tanaka, Japan's foremost actress, who returned to her country after a tour of Hawaii and Hollywood, announced that she had organized her own motion picture company. Its first production is to be a movie on the Nisei 442nd Regimental Combat Team.

The production is to be based on a story by Corp. Larry Sakamoto of Honolulu entitled "Hawaii's Own". He is a staff writer on the U. S. Army's Stars and Stripes, Far East Edition in Tokyo and a former member of the unit.

Jets, TNT Are Winners In All-Toronto Jr. Tilts

A taller and more experienced TNT team whipped the hard-fighting Barons 58-29 in the first game of the Saturday twin bill. The game opened with both teams matching baskets, but as time progressed, TNT's superior backboard and floor play took the sting out of the Baron attack and the winners piled up a commanding lead.

Halftime score was 32-15 for TNT. George Isozaki of the Barons was high scorer for the night with 14. TNT points were well spread with Frank Idenouye netting 11, and Jim Kamino and Tom Yatabe contributing 10 pts.

In a lethargic second game, the Jets came from behind to drop the Stags 34-23. In the initial half, the losers, sparked by stocky Terry Kameoka, took a 16-12 lead; but as the teams switched ends, the Jets suddenly came to life to pull the game out of the bag by outscoring the Stags 16-7 in the second half.

Mike Nagata and Ted Nakamura with 11 and 8 points respectively, were high scorers for the Jets while Terry Kameoka with 8 was the best for the Stags.

the amount of work that the Film Society was putting into their production. Most of the group were university students who were devoting their spare time, particularly their weekends towards the project. It would seem to our empirical calculations, that they'll be sacrificing many Saturdays and Sundays.

The work is all voluntary and it is not a money-making venture in any way, it is merely a project undertaken by the Society as a useful activity, and in view of this, we could not help but admire and at the same time, feel grateful for what they were attempting in full earnest.

If anybody deserves a hand, and they really merit much more than that, it's this Film Society.

We've received a copy of the shooting script and in rough, it follows a Japanese family from Vancouver at the time of Pearl Harbor, the father being sent to roadcamp, the family moving into Hastings Park, then their removal to the Interior Town, then their resettlement in Eastern Canada.

The set and prop men have a time reconstructing the various scenes for the wide variety of shots the production calls for. The summer camp as we mentioned before serves as a ghost-town, then there will be the Hastings Park. This may be taken at the Canadian National Exhibition grounds. There's a need for a streetcar interior shot, a railway station, a home typical of Vancouver among others. So the cast and crew will be doing a lot of hopping.

And with a lot of shots calling for a variety of emotions, the cast is to be called on for a lot of expressive histrionics. We watched some of them, including the young boys, acting before the camera, and their performance was very realistic, and convincing, a credit to themselves and to the directors.

We've watched Hollywood cameramen at work back on the coast when Columbia Studios had a small subsidiary in Victoria just before the war. While their equipment and stage and all other technical details were incomparable, the manner in which these "amateurs" carried out their assignments, that is, including both the cast and the crew shows they're taking their work seriously, and doing a capable job under the many difficult circumstances.

While on the subject of films, the MGM's plans for "Go For Broke" is creating much excitement but in view of the inconsistency of Hollywood temperaments and the unreliability of their ways, until we view the finished product, we're reluctant to do any hurrah-ing.

That they're planning to spend a million dollars or more produces a suspicious twitch in the back of our heads. That's not [illegible] even in Hollywood. And when they throw around that kind of money they expect [illegible] right back. [illegible] we've a feeling that [illegible] be produced with both eyes on the box-office and just a glance [illegible] at what we hope the picture will show.

PASSING THRU

Without love, where would the boys like Valentino, Boyer, and all of the Great Lovers be? And it also affected Samson and Delilah, Adam and Eve, Anthony and Cleopatra.

And all those love-songs that's sung to the echo. I'm All For You, Body and So-o-ul, All of Me, Why Not Take All of Me, sort of stuff.

Verily, and forsooth, from all this it seems to be a precious commodity. For the lovestruck, the disillusioned, the indifferent who make up this world, it can be funny, or sad, it's a problem either way. So they tell me.

However, Mike Masaoka will be right on the scene, and we hope we're wrong.
